

Homecoming

- Practice for the parade will be Friday at 5:30 p.m. in Sunvilla

T-shirts

- T-shirts are ready! They are $5/members $7/non-members.

Banquet

- Sheila won in the run-off for hostess.
- Producer: We can use the techs from conference services to produce the show for free. Kareem will collect music for all the performances and put it on one CD.
- Tickets:
  - Mou presented the ticket design. We decided to spend $40 for white perforated paper. Gloria can print the tickets with colored ink for free.
- Booths
  - Mou has six groups so far signed up for booths at the Banquet.
- Decorations
  - The design for decorations was passed around. The colors are red and gold. There will be vases as centerpieces filled with dry ice. Balloons will be red and gold, there will be red napkins, and there will be pebbles on each table. We voted to spend $230 for decorations, of which $130 is helium.
- Public Relations
  - Changes were made to the flyer and printed. They were distributed at the meeting to be posted on campus. The press release is out. Shola will be asking a professional to film and edit the show. He has offered to do it for whatever we will pay him. We voted to pay $200 and the deadline to have the DVD done be at the end of the semester Christmas party.
- Performances
  - As of now there are 25 performances. We discussed cutting down the list and/or changing the time limit for each performance. We also discussed having try-outs for the submitted performances. The performance committee will be meeting.
